

Contact: Kris Cross
Director of Public Relations
937-

^^ CUTLINE: The 102nd graduating class of Southern State Community College Medical Assisting program includes: (front row, l-r) Opal Dunn, Sarah Zindorf, Serenity Batterson; (back row, l-r) September Barnhart, Denise Cox, Lindsay Aills, Lauren Lechuga Ramirez, Brelee Arehart (absent from photo) Jessica Hippen and Arlene Shumaker.

^^ CUTLINE: The 35th graduating class of Southern State Community College Phlebotomy Technician program includes: (l-r) Brelee Arehart, Jessica Hippen, Hayley Cullom, Blourey, Caitlin Boys, Denise Cox; (absent from photo) Lauren Lechuga Ramirez.

^^ CUTLINE: The 20th graduating class of Southern State Community College Billing & Coding Specialist program includes: (l-r) Daniel Marsh, Kaitlyn Deaton, Abigail Laught, and Sarah Stemann.

SSCC healthcare programs celebrate graduation

Graduates of Southern State Community College's medical assisting and allied health programs were honored April 25 at a Graduate Tea. Graduates from the medical assisting, phlebotomy technician and billing and coding specialist programs attended.

The 2018 Medical Assisting graduating class includes: Brown County, Serenity Batterson* of Fayetteville, and Arlene Shumaker of Mt. Orab; from Clinton County, Blye Arehart of Wilmington, Denise Cox of Sabina, Lauren Lechuga Ramirez of Sabina, Sarah Zindorf of Clarksville; from Fayette County, Lindsay Aills of Washington C.H., and Jessica Hippen of Washington C.H.; from Highland County, September Barnhart of Greenfield, Opal Dunn of Hillsboro, Arelt y Nld, OI-01 pti AnC]TJ 0.002 Tt-01 snd Coca 965 0 Td [Dhe 2018 MPhlebot