

Southern State Community College Non-Discrimination Policy under the 2020 Amendments to the US Dept. of Education Title IX Regulation

Southern State Community College strongly opposes and will not tolerate harassment or related behavior of any kind. It is the policy of the College to maintain a working and learning environment free from any sexual harassment, sexual violence, or discrimination against employees, applicants, and students on the basis of race, color, religion, gender, gender identity or expression, national origin (ancestry), military status (past, present or future), disability, age (40 years or older), status as a parent during pregnancy and immediately after the birth of a child, status as a parent of a young child, status as a foster parent, genetic information, or sexual orientation. All staff, faculty, and students of the College should be aware that such behavior violates both law and College policy. This prohibition extends to discrimination or harassment, based on the protected classes, including the creation of an intimidatin
